

30.--Archdeaconries and Regional Deaneries

1. For the purposes of administration, the Diocese shall be divided into Archdeaconries and Regional Deaneries, the names, number and member parishes/congregations of which shall be established and varied by resolution of the Diocesan Council from time to time.
2. The Archdeaconries shall consist of such Regional Deaneries as shall be established and varied by resolution of the Diocesan Council from time to time.