

3.--Appointment of Dignitaries and Other Officers, and Their Duties

1. There may be in the Diocese the following dignitaries and other officers:
 - One Dean of Huron, together with Canons to constitute the Cathedral Chapter;
 - Archdeacons and Regional Deans as may be required;
 - one Chancellor;
 - one Vice-Chancellor;
 - one Registrar;
 - one Synod Solicitor, and, when necessary;
 - one Commissary; and
 - Honorary Canons.

The Bishop may also appoint former Archdeacons to be Archdeacons Emeritus and former Chancellors to be Chancellors Emeritus.

2. The appointment of dignitaries and officers shall be vested in the Bishop and such offices shall be held during his/her pleasure. When any new Bishop assumes office, each of such offices except those of the Dean of Huron, the Canons of the Cathedral Chapter, Honorary Canons, Archdeacons Emeritus and Chancellors Emeritus shall be vacated on the date of the installation of the newly-elected Bishop.
3. In the case of the resignation, retirement or removal of any clerical dignitary from his/her parish/congregation or from performing Diocesan work with the Bishop's sanction, he/she shall also retire from his/her office as dignitary (except in the case of a Canon of the Cathedral Chapter who is appointed to another parish/congregation in the Diocese).
4. The duties of dignitaries and officers (if not otherwise provided) shall be assigned by the Bishop.
5. The Chancellor shall be an active communicant of the Anglican Church of Canada, and be a lawyer licensed with the Law Society of Upper Canada of at least ten years' standing. He/she shall advise, assist, and act with the Bishop or, in his/her absence, with the Commissary, in all matters of discipline or cases of difficulty or doubt, when requested by the Bishop or the Commissary. Before entering upon his/her duties he/she shall swear that he/she will to the utmost of his/her understanding deal uprightly and justly in such office, without expectation of favour or reward.
6. The Vice-Chancellor shall be an active communicant of the Anglican Church of Canada and be a lawyer licensed with the Law Society of Upper Canada. He/she shall act as deputy to the Chancellor in advising, assisting and acting with the Bishop or Commissary and shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the Chancellor or the Bishop, and in particular, shall act for and on behalf of the Chancellor during the Chancellor's absence or inability to attend to duties. Before entering into his/her duties, he/she shall swear that he/she will to the utmost of his/her understanding deal uprightly and justly in such office, without expectation of favour or reward.

7. The Synod Solicitor shall be an active communicant of the Anglican Church of Canada and be a lawyer licensed with the Law Society of Upper Canada. He/she shall advise and assist the Bishop or, in his/her absence, the Commissary and the Chancellor, in all matters, when requested by the Bishop or the Chancellor. Before entering into his/her duties, he/she shall swear that he/she will to the utmost of his/her understanding deal uprightly and justly in such office.
8. For the purposes of election and appointment by the Synod to committees and other bodies and for the purpose of casting votes at the Synod (if entitled by the Constitution to vote at Synod), the Chancellor, Chancellor(s) Emeritus, Vice-Chancellor, Synod Solicitor, Secretary-Treasurer, the Director, Human Resources, and Executive Officer, Bishops' Office (or Executive Archdeacon, Bishops' Office) (if not clerics) shall be deemed to be duly elected Lay Representatives to the Synod.
