For all Social Media Platforms

The Diocese of Huron online spaces are designed to share news and information from the diocese and the Anglican Church of Canada.

We know that social media can be an important platform for education, learning and creative discussions. Therefore, the Diocese of Huron encourages people to share their stories, discuss faith, and to host respectful, honest and courteous dialogues.

We reserve the right to delete any comments or posts that does not reflect the Diocesan principles of building up the body of Christ and preparing God's people to live God's mission in the world. Posts and comments that advocate racism, sexism, or homophobic will be deleted.

The Diocese of Huron also reserves the right to block any user who has violated the above terms. Depending on the severity of the comment or post, the user may be issued a warning. All abusive behaviour will be monitored and tracked. These standards will be enforced as the moderators deem necessary.
